OXFORD™ CHAIR

Fritz Hansen unveils a new and improved version of Arne Jacobsen's Oxford™ chair, originally designed for professors at St. Catherine's College in Oxford, England and now reimagined for a contemporary audience.

While the reworked chair retains the same silhouette, available with a low or medium backrest, it has been updated with lumbar support, a longer seat for a more natural sitting posture, multiple base options and a new coherent standard column height that enables armrest configurations to neatly tuck under tabletops.

Offered in different base colour options and a range of upholstery including leather and textile in new colours, the Oxford™ chair is equally at home in private spaces as in the office or a public place.

DESIGNER/ YEAR OF DESIGN
Arne Jacobsen, 1965

DESIGNER
The collaboration between Arne Jacobsen and Fritz Hansen dates back to 1934. It was not until 1952 however that the team got its breakthrough with the Ant™. It was succeeded by Series 7™ in 1955, thereby enabling both Jacobsen and Fritz Hansen to write their names into furniture history.
